When to Break Confidentiality

There may be times when it is necessary to break confidentiality

- If you believe a parent has made statements to you that could be construed as harmful, neglectful or abusive
- If you believe a child is in danger
- If you believe the parent has made threats to harm themselves or others

Who to Call

- Is it an emergency where seconds count? (someone is suicidal or has a weapon)
  - Call 911
- Is there immediate risk to the child?
  - Call Childline 800-932-0313
- Is there immediate risk that the parent may hurt themselves or others?
  - Call your County Crisis Intervention
